

America's largest sports watching network is now VIRTUAL & GLOBAL!

FanWide is known as America's largest sports bar network, but we have launched the technology that our partners have been demanding – FanWideVirtual Watch Parties. FanWide is providing sports organizations, alumni associations and fan communities of all sizes with an innovative solution to keep you engaged with your fans – regardless of schedule postponements! Introducing FanWideVirtual, a video platform built for fan communities that allows thousands of fans to simultaneous watch and interact with each other just like they would inside your stadium or a local bar. Contact Info@FanWide.com to launch your virtual watch parties within days!

2020 Strategy

1. Before sports resume: Stage encore presentations or classic games content or host chat sessions with fans and players, legends & coaches
2. Closed door schedules resume: Execute for live games
3. Public schedules resume: Consider in-person watch parties
4. Long Term Growth: Establish new communities worldwide
